Berkley Agribusiness
a Berkley Company

Insurance for Animal Feed Manufacturing

Delivering targeted insurance solutions for animal feed manufacturing mills.

What Makes Our Approach Different?

We offer a distinctive approach to providing customized solutions that address your business's specific risks. Leveraging our focused expertise and understanding of the complexities involved in feed production, we develop comprehensive coverage plans designed to safeguard your business against potential liabilities. Our unique approach helps you identify and act on the things you can control — and understand the investment it takes to eliminate unnecessary risk.

Targeted Businesses

- A mill in which animal feed is manufactured for livestock
- Excludes exotic pet food manufacturing

Risk Characteristics

- FSMA compliance
- SQF certified
- CGMP for any medicated feed
- HAACP plan
- Sampling and record-keeping procedures in place
- If toll milling, approved risk transfers required
